1. INTRODUCTION

The Hiltonian Society NPC (registered company number: 1928/001172/08) is a not-for-profit company registered in terms of the Companies Act No. 71 of 2008 and whose principal business is the ownership and operation of an independent boys' senior boarding school in the Midlands of KwaZulu-Natal, South Africa. Our school profile is available at <https://hiltoncollege.com>.

This Manual is compiled in accordance with the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000 and the Regulations Relating to the Promotion of Access to Information, published under Government Notice R.757 in Government Gazette No. 45057 of 27 August 2021 ("PAIA"). The Manual is available on our website www.hiltoncollege.com and is available for inspection at the school (refer to contact details in section 3 of this Manual). For the purposes of this Manual, we refer to ourselves as the "Society", "we", "us" or "our".

PAIA ensures access to information held by the state or other individuals when necessary for exercising or protecting rights. It obliges the relevant body to release information unless specifically restricted by PAIA, outlines the procedures for such requests, and is interpreted alongside the Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 ("POPIA").

POPIA sets out minimum requirements for how personal information is handled by both public and private bodies, aiming to protect such information. It also amends aspects of PAIA to ensure a balance between the right to access information and the safeguarding of personal information by providing for (i) the establishment of an Information Regulator to exercise certain powers and perform certain duties and functions in terms of POPIA and PAIA, (ii) providing for the issuing of codes of conduct, (iii) providing for the rights of persons regarding unsolicited electronic communications and automated decision making in order to regulate the flow of personal information and (iv) to provide for matters concerned therewith.

The purpose of this Manual is to inform you of, guide you through, the procedural and other requirements with which a PAIA request must comply. The Manual also includes information on the submission of objections to the processing of personal information and requests to correct, delete or destroy personal information or records thereof in terms of POPIA.

4. GUIDE COMPILED BY THE SOUTH AFRICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

The South African Human Rights Commission ("SAHRC") compiled a guide on how to use PAIA ("the Guide").

From 1 July 2021, the Information Regulator assumed the functions of the SAHRC and has in terms of section 10(1) of PAIA updated and made available the Guide compiled by the SAHRC for anyone who wishes to exercise any right contemplated by PAIA and POPIA.

The Guide is available for inspection at the offices of the Information Regulator and on its website (<https://inforegulator.org.za>). The Guide can also be obtained upon request to our Information Officer (contact details reflected in section 3 of this Manual).

Any queries regarding the Guide must be directed to the Information Regulator on the following details:

6. DESCRIPTION OF THE DATA SUBJECTS AND CATEGORIES OF RECORDS

This section of the Manual sets out the subject and categories of records held by the Society. The inclusion of any subject or category of records should not be taken as an indication that records falling within those subjects and/or categories will be made available under PAIA. Certain grounds of refusal set out in PAIA may be applicable to a request for such records.

The purpose of the processing of the information described below is required to operate the business of a school, and its related activities, which, by its very nature, is dependent upon the holding, and processing of personal information. Trans-border flows of personal information generally relate only to the authorized transfer of information in respect of connected persons, such as parents and pupils, who are not ordinarily resident in South Africa.

7. CATEGORIES OF RECORDS WHICH ARE AVAILABLE WITHOUT REQUEST

Certain records are available without a person having to request access in terms of PAIA such as publicly available information about the Society, news publications, press releases, brochures and marketing material. Certain information is also available on the Society's website at www.hiltoncollege.com.

8. INFORMATION SECURITY MEASURES

Protecting the security and confidentiality of your personal information is a priority for us. We have put in place appropriate technical, administrative, and physical safeguards to prevent unauthorised access, disclosure, or misuse of personal information.

Information is essentially controlled via restricted access to buildings where appropriate, locked doors, computer firewalls and password protection. The general premises have 24/7 patrolling guards. Certain records, such as payroll and accounts, have access limited by user.

We are dedicated to regularly reviewing and, where needed, updating our security practices to ensure your personal information remains protected.

9. REQUEST PROCEDURE

Completion of Prescribed Form

A request for access to a record in terms of PAIA must substantially correspond with Form 2 of Annexure A to the Regulations relating to PAIA. Form 2 is annexed to this Manual for your ease of reference, alternatively, you may access the form on <https://inforegulator.org.za/paia-forms>. The request must be made to our Information Officer (contact details in section 3 of this Manual).

Payment of Prescribed Fee

The prescribed fees in respect of private bodies for requests to private bodies are set out in Annexure B to the Regulations relating to PAIA and can be accessed on <https://www.justice.gov.za/paia/paia.htm>.

10. OBJECTION

Data subjects have the right to object to the processing of their personal information at any time, provided they have reasonable grounds related to their specific circumstances, unless the law allows such processing. To do this, the data subject must fill out the required form (Appendix C FORM 1 - Objection to the processing of personal information in terms of section 11(3) of the POPIA Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation 2]) which is available on <https://inforegulator.org.za/popia-forms>. This form must be submitted to our Information Officer using the contact details provided in section 3 of this Manual.

11. CORRECTION

Data subjects have the right to request the correction or deletion of their personal information if it is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, misleading, or unlawfully obtained. Additionally, they may request the destruction or deletion of any records that the Society is no longer authorised to retain, as provided for under POPIA's Regulations regarding retention and restriction of records.

A data subject that wishes to request a correction or deletion of personal information or the destruction or deletion of a record of personal information must submit a request to our Information Officer (contact details provided in section 3 of this Manual) on the required form (Appendix D - FORM 2 - Request for correction or deletion of personal information or destroying or deletion of record of personal information in terms of section 24(1) of POPIA's Regulations relating to the protection of personal information, 2018 [Regulation3]) . This form is also available on <https://inforegulator.org.za/popia-forms>.

12. GROUND FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS AND PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

A request for access to a record may be declined on several grounds, including the protection of a third party's personal or commercial information, such as trade secrets or sensitive financial, scientific, or technical data. Requests may also be refused if disclosure would violate a duty of confidence, compromise an individual's safety, prejudice property rights, or reveal information produced during legal proceedings unless privilege has been waived. Further grounds for refusal include information that could disadvantage the Society in negotiations, harm its competitive position, or undermine security measures.

However, section 70 of PAIA stipulates that disclosure of a record becomes mandatory if it would reveal a significant breach of the law or highlight a serious and imminent public safety or environmental risk, provided the public interest in disclosure clearly outweighs any potential harm. If access to information affects a third party, that party must be notified within 21 days of the request, after which they have a further 21 days to make representations regarding the release of the record.

13. REMEDIES AVAILABLE TO A REQUESTER ON REFUSAL OF ACCESS

When the Information Officer approves a request for access to a specific record, access must be provided to the requester within thirty days of notification of the decision. If access to information is refused, the requester will receive correspondence outlining the available appeal procedure.

Should the requester remain dissatisfied following an appeal, they may escalate the matter to the Information Regulator or seek recourse through a competent court. If the access decision affects a third party and the Information Officer grants access, the third party has thirty days to appeal the decision in court. If no appeal is lodged within this period, access to the record must be granted to the requester.

14. CHANGES TO THIS MANUAL

This Manual may be amended and updated from time to time, provided that if the Society does so, it will ensure that such changes are carried out subject to and published in accordance with PAIA and POPIA.
